

SHAWN RICHARD-DAVIS

Speaker | Author | Advocate

Shawn Richard-Davis is a speaker, author and passionate advocate for domestic violence survivors. For over twenty-eight years, Shawn served as a victim advocate and probation counselor for the City of Seattle, Washington. Shawn has been a safe space, compassionate ear and resource for thousands of domestic violence survivors and their families.

Shawn graduated cum laude with a degree in Criminal Justice and Police Science from Seattle University. She is happily married to Gregory Davis, the love of her life, for 39 years and together they have two adult children.

My mission is simple. I want to end domestic violence and save lives.

—Shawn Richard-Davis

SPEAKING TOPICS

Invite Shawn Richard-Davis to speak at your next event!

- The ABCs of Domestic Violence
- Understanding the Signs of Domestic Violence
- How to Help: 10 Tips for Family and Friends of Domestic Violence Survivors
- How to Get Out Safely: Safety Planning for Domestic Violence Victims
- Domestic Violence 101 for Men: A How-to Workshop for Men Who Want to Help Eradicate Domestic Violence
- Work and Domestic Violence: What Employers Can Do to Empower and Aid Survivors
- Silent No More: How the Church Can Help End Domestic Violence
- Submission vs. Silence: Discerning the Difference in the Church
- Understanding the Origins of Domestic Violence and How to Uproot It

SHAWN RICHARD-DAVIS

Speaker | Author | Advocate

“Setting Aside Silence: One Word at a Time,” offers an in-depth understanding of domestic violence, its roots, its symptoms and how to safely break free or support a loved one who is experiencing domestic violence.

Written from A to Z, Setting Aside Silence is an instruction manual created to enlighten and empower survivors of domestic violence and their loved ones. “Setting Aside Silence” is available on Amazon.com.

Learn more at www.ShawnRichard-Davis.com